ABOUT THE ALBUM

Award-winning jazz chanteuse, Danielle Eva brings forth eight eclectic originals on her second album, Lark and Sea, co-produced by multi-platinum artist David Elliott Johnson. From the country blues-inspired Oh My to the gypsy-jazz nod of Mama's Got To Roll or the lyrical poetry of Uluwatu and poignant ballad expression found in What Can The Stars Hold, these songs deliver her signature laid-back soulful vocals over stellar ensemble playing by some of North East Florida's top jazz talents.

-All About Jazz

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Blending elements of jazz and roots with poetic lyrics, American vocalist and song-writer Danielle Eva has emerged as a distinct voice in the contemporary jazz pop genre. Danielle is a past top 3 winner in both the US Billie Holiday Competition and New York's Jazzmobile, and a scholarship awardee from the Monk Institute's Jazz Aspen. For several years she worked in the top venues of New York and Washington DC and performed as a resident artist in clubs throughout Asia and the Middle East.
